

Safeguarding Children Conference

Improving practice; Learning from experience

Thursday 12 November 2015

9.30-16.00

The Motor Cycle Museum

Coventry Road, Solihull B92 0EJ

Conference aim

To bring together leaders, supervisors and managers providing services to children in Solihull to deliver key messages on safeguarding children developments and learning from serious case reviews and national research.

Conference objectives

At the end of the conference, participants will be informed about;

- The neglect strategy: lessons learned from serious case reviews.
- Recent developments in safeguarding children including thresholds, early help and MASH.
- LSCB safeguarding training, including the trainer's pool and faculty.

Participants will also work on how managers and supervisors make a positive contribution to continuing practice improvements individually and in multi-agency environments.

"Question Time" panel

During the afternoon a panel will be available to answer questions:

- Councillor Meeson- Portfolio Holder Health & Wellbeing
- Adam Scott- Assistant Director Children & Skills SMBC
- Bec Baylis - Refuge & Outreach Manager Birmingham & Solihull Women's Aid
- Rosemary Luce- Designated Nurse- Safeguarding Adults and Children & Mental Capacity Act Lead for Solihull CCG
- Alex Murray - Chief Superintendent West Midlands Police
- Tina McGrath - Interim Assistant Director- Early Help SMBC
- Chris Palmer- Assistant Director- learning & Achievement SMBC
- Mohammed Bham- Principal Education Psychologist

Target group

LSCB members, managers, leaders and supervisors of practitioners who work with children and families in Solihull This includes Designated Members of Staff in education provider settings as well as those working in the voluntary sector .

To book a place & submit a question for the panel

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/LSCBKM4478>

If you require further information please contact the LSCB Training & Development team 0121 788 4478 lsbctrain@solihull.gov.uk